The Congregation of the Sisters of St Joseph of Tarbes was founded in the year 1843 by six young girls in a little hamlet in Cantalous in France in the year 1882. Five sisters came to India inspired by the teachings of Jesus Christ they started the Educational Institutions. In the year 1889 the first school St Francis Xavier was established in St Johns Hills Fraser Town Bangalore. We have spread out in 13 countries. All our educational, vocational, Medical, Social, and technical Institutions have same Vision “ Father they may all be one rooted in the Charism of our Congregation today we have 25 educational institutions in Karnataka, also we have in Kerala , Maharashtra and in the north India. All the Institutions are governed by the Governing Body of the Society of St Joseph. We are happy that our Institutions are scaling higher and higher aiming at quality education, instilling in our students unity, harmony and inclusiveness.
